

As flight attendant working in the cabin of airplanes everyday, the last thing we need are people on their cell phones! People are hard enough to control without them getting into arguments about talking on their phones. Permitting cell phones is just a huge mistake! Please leave cell phones where they should be, in the off position!